Taboo School Book One: Learning The Hard Way

Synopsis

"There's just one thing a man ever wants from a woman. Oh yeah? What's that? Permission." Abigail Winters is single, 35 and fed up as hell. When her friend tells her about a secret sex organization, she figures she has nothing to lose. But before she knows it, her darkest, most taboo fantasies are leading her down a path she can never turn back from and doesn't want to turn back from. Soon Abby proves to herself just exactly what she's capable of and it all starts when she has the guts to say yes to her most forbidden desires. Taboo School has a lesson to teach Abby but she's going to have to learn it the hard way. WARNING Mature readers only! This book is all about breaking boundaries. It contains vivid descriptions of group sex, filthy language and a heroine who wants to see just how much she can take. If this pushes your boundaries, you have been warned! STORY PROFILE Good relationships are built on communication! Here's a rundown of this erotic short so you know exactly what you're getting yourself into: Commitment Level: Low. It's just not looking for a long-term relationship right now, you know? 15 000 words, so you can finish reading in one or two, uh, sittings. Good for an evening in or a long bath if you don't mind topping up the hot water as you go. What I'm looking for in a reader: Expect threesome scenes with two men and one woman, and interaction between two bisexual men. Blowjobs, butt stuff. I need a reader who likes a good plot but wants to get to the good bits sooner rather than later. Raunch Factor: 8 out of 10. Lots of swears. Love Factor: 4 out of 10. There's a bit of romance, but it's really all about the you-know-what. Where do you see this going? This book is part of a trilogy, and there are no real cliffhangers. Book one can be a standalone. There's a Happily Ever After eventually. No cheating, no BDSM elements, no mention of contraceptive use.
