A Victorian Christmas Tea: Angel In The Attic/A Daddy For Christmas/Tea For Marie/Going Home (HeartQuest Christmas Anthology)

Synopsis

Catherine Palmer, Dianna Crawford, Peggy Stoks, and Katherine Chute's Victorian Christmas Tea is a sure romance hit. Each of the four novellas in this charming anthology is set in a different region of nineteenth-century America, and each involves a delightful Christmas tea. Wholesome, uplifting romance is coupled with strong biblical values and--as a special bonus--authentic recipes are included at the end of each inspiring story! A "must buy" for fans of Christmas by the Hearth, readers of quality Christian romance, and the recipe collector in every family.

This book is perfect for the Holidays. I now plan to read the book every year. I am presently reading the story of the Christmas Cottage and the quilt series is next on my list! Nothing better to warm ones heart than romance at Christmas time! You'll love it! And the recipes at the end of every story are a Perfect ending!

I enjoyed this book with the variety of short stories set in various locations in the US during the Victorian era. Great characters and subject matter. The recipes at the end of each novella is something mentioned in the story. The recipes actually have a history of their own. This is a book worth reading.

In the season rush... this book was a gift that allowed me to just slip away for awhile. I loved the stories. This is a great gift for the romance book addict or just someone who needs a quick pick me up in the middle of a hectic life.

I bought this book as a fan of all things "Victorian" and thoroughly enjoyed the stories. This is Christian romance writing at its best - the gospel message is there, along with a believable romantic story. Recommended for anyone who likes to curl up with a good book on a winter evening.
