Customer Reviews

Barbara Jean Hick's return to Pilchuck was perfect. And the reason I bought the book. The other three stories were typical, lite reads with few problems and too swift conclusion due to the constraints of a short story.

these stories, though filled with period house restoration details and great sense of place, spend more time talking about the physique of the characters and sexual tension involved as they stare at eachothers abs,lips, legs, etc. I would like to know where Christian authors read in their Bibles that lusting is okay-actually encouraging their audience to do so,as well as judge by appearances. Its hard enough living in the world today without getting it from these Christian authors,too.

These four stories, each centered around an old house, are truly heartwarming. If you are feeling down, these great stories will definitely "restore" you too.

This was just what I was looking for. These are well-written heartwarming stories. I enjoyed every one of them and will be looking for more from these great authors.
