Pepped Up (Pepper Jones Book 1)

Synopsis

Pepper Jones is ready for an epic cross country season. She wants to qualify for Nationals, and she's willing to do anything it takes to make it happen. She can handle long miles and hill sprints, but boys? That's an entirely different challenge. Pepper's never considered revealing her deeper feelings for her longtime friend, Jace Wilder. After all, he's got the personal magnetism and good looks to hook just about any girl in town -- and he has. Their friendship stands apart from high school social circles, and they're both just fine with that (or at least they pretend to be). That is, until running star Ryan Harding moves to town. When it comes to running, Pepper's goals are clear. But when it comes to Jace and Ryan, it's nowhere near as simple. Pepped Up is the first in a series that follows Pepper through high school and into college. The second and third books in the series are now available. The fourth book will be released July 30, 2015. *This book contains mature content.*

Customer Reviews

Sixteen-year-old Pepper Jones loves running, and she's fantastic at it, even though she's only been running a little over two years. In fact, she's well on her way to achieving her goal to become a national cross-country champion this year, while still a junior in high school. The only thing complicating her life is her long-term crush on her best friend, seventeen-year-old senior, Jace Wilder. They've been neighbors since they were toddlers. Pepper's parents died in a car accident when she was a baby, and Jace's mother deserted him and his father when he was four. Pepper's grandmother, Bunny, became her guardian, and she became Jace's childcare provider, too, when he lost his mother. Pepper regarded Jace in a sisterly light until the summer Pepper was thirteen and Jace was fourteen, and she suddenly became aware of how gorgeous he had become--and the unsettling reality that girls were flocking around him, vying for his attention, many of them physically pawing him in the process. Unfortunately for Pepper, the odds of her ever being more than a little sister to Jace are slim to none. He's never flirted with her or in any way indicated that he has any romantic interest in her. And at the end of the previous school year, she overheard Jace telling one of his friends that he could never date her, because she's like family to him. As a result, Pepper has done her best to hide her true feelings from Jace, not wanting to lose him as a friend. But it's a constant, painful struggle to accomplish that, because her heart is shredded anew every time she's forced to witness Jace accept the latest of an endless string of eager offers of sex from girls Pepper considers far more attractive and sophisticated than herself.

I NEED BOOK 2â | NOW!!! I loved this book! I instantly clicked with it and just couldn't stop reading! This book was recommended to me because of my love for all books by Tijan! And let me just say that Ali Dean is now on my radar and I am anxious to read EVERYTHING she writes in the future! This is one of those books that sucks you in and just won't let go, I can't say enough!"This right here is what I live for. The steady rhythm of my feet landing softly on dirt."Pepped Up is the story about Pepper Jones. She lives to run and is an amazing cross country runner for her High School, Brockton Public. Pepper has worked hard and is hoping to qualify for Nationals this year! Pepper is not one of the popular girls who goes to parties and hook-ups. But her best friend, Jace Wilder, is the most popular boy in school! Everyone loves him, the guys idolize and respect him and the girls all swoon at his feet! They have been friends their whole life and even though they now run in different social circles, they have always been close!"Pep, you're my best friend. Even more than Wes. You're like family, you know?"But now that Ryan Harding has moved to town and is interested in Pepper, everything is starting to change. Ryan is a cross country runner and he is instantly drawn to Pepper. No matter how hard she tells herself to stay focused on running, Ryan and Jace always seem to be in the front of her mind! She has always liked Jace more than in a friend way, but never wanted to tell him. But everything is changing and she is starting to learn that maybe she means more to him than she thoughtâ | but what about Ryan? And how much does she really know about
