Operation Moth (Ben Hood Thrillers Book 26)

Synopsis

She is very beautiful with exceptional academic qualifications and vast experience in the use of toxic chemicals. ISIS needs her to achieve their goals for a catastrophic attack within Australia. She attracts terrorists like moths to a flame. Can Ben Hood put her in a position where the moths will be attracted and made to burn before they can kill thousands of innocent people?

Customer Reviews

Another great Ben Hood read. Spoiler alert. This one starts with Ben in the loony bin. It's not just any mental hospital. It's a hospital run by the Government. Seems Ben assaulted Federal police who came to interview him. The shrink at the hospital and everyone else thinks Ben just cracked. Rod and Rose ain't buying it. They know Ben very well and him flipping out is just something neither will believe. Rod and Rose are allowed to visit Ben and he yells, telling them to leave. A very out of character move for Ben. Rose is convinced he's okay and Rod doesn't know what to think. So begins one damned fine read. This one has Ben, Major Walter Curtain, Rod, Rose, Akira, an Akira who knows Ben very well, an Akira who knows this is all about something else entirely, a woman named Layla Hashim, a Hashim who's a toxicologist who sells her abilities to the highest bidder, a Hashim Ben escapes with, a Hashim Ben has absolutely no liking for at all, ISIS, Muslims, terrorists, a Muslim family living in Australia named Rahmen, the husband named Joe, his wife, daughter and sons, a plan to kill many, a Ben and Layla making their way to the Rahmen's, a captured Ben, a Ben who escapes, a fifteen year old girl named Rae Miller, a Rae who's one extraordinary capable and savvy young girl, the skeleton of a missing WWII Captain, grenades, Major Curtain and his plans and his people, a Rae who gets one hell of a surprise from Rose and Rod and Ben Hood doing his best to figure it all out, take out the bad guys and stay alive. Five Stars.

This is the best Ben Hood novel yet. As usual, the people have believable personalities and motives. Mr. Lindsay seems to understand a lot about the Muslim beliefs and the Koran. I thoroughly enjoyed this one. Started reading around 10 am and finished about 3pm. Couldn't put it down.

I loved this book and devoured it in one sitting as the author keeps setting the bar higher with each one. This is Ben Hood at his finest. The story is full of twists and turns and not everything is as it seems. The plot is well developed and the action is fast and sometimes unexpected. The story is like something ripped from the headlines, and the thought of a terrorist attack in Australia is a very real, very terrifying prospect. Also, reading Ben Hood proved good for my blood pressure. Didn't even mind the ten hour flight delay since I had a new Drew Lindsey book to read.

I have read many of the Ben Hood series and this is far and away the best. It truly is a page-turner and is a novel with multiple dimensions. Drew Lindsay has raised the bar even higher with this excellent work. I look forward to his next novel.
