Customer Reviews

Corduroy's at it again; getting himself into trouble as he searches for the perfect material to build his pocket! This is a nice Spanish translation of a fun book that my son loves to have read to him.

Perfect for those teaching their children Spanish and for those brushing up on their skills.

My husband (not a Spanish speaker) picked out this book for our 9-month-old daughter, and I (a Spanish speaker) read it aloud for us. We adults got a little sentimental as we both fondly remember reading this story in the original English as children. Beyond that, it's a very nice translation; it reminds me somewhat of the translation of Curious George (Jorge el Curioso). It's a little "old-fashioned" in that it uses longer clauses than many children's books do today (you know, more-than-5-word sentences), as the original does, and the characters (Corduroy, the little girl Lisa, the painter who finds the bear in his laundry) come across just as lovable. The author takes them seriously, and yet not too seriously. As for my daughter, I can't exactly tell you how well she likes it yet; she seemed to enjoy the pictures and the sound of my voice. Hopefully this will be one we'll read for several years to come! Me gustó mucho esta traducción del libro clásico. Era fiel a la original y los personajes (el osito Corduroy, la niña Lisa, el pintador) son muy encantadores. Es un cuento sencillo que no se mueve tan rápido como algunos libros para niños modernos, pero es muy lindo y memorable.

Nos encanta el libro. Corduroy es uno de los caracteres preferidos de mi hija.

Messed up in delivery and the book looks straight out of a library.
