Customer Reviews

I was a little worried reading the comments, after I had placed my order, that I would be disappointed. As others have noted, it was not quite what they expected. When I opened my package, I was pleased that everything looked great, with no damage at all! The books were tightly packed within the set (as most good book sets come to prevent the books from moving around and ruining the edges). The quality of the design doesn't seem to be lacking to me-as it was what I was expecting from a small paperback. I was not searching for fancy books to line my bookshelves, but rather fantastic stories to inspire my dreams. I feel like I got a great bunch of small books for less than a dollar a piece! I usually buy old classics that are falling apart at thrift stores and used book stores for more than that. It is an awesome introduction to authors that I have yet to read and a great addition to some of my favorites! Now where to begin...

Felt compelled to comment about the set which I have been anticipating for months and was delivered today. I love it! Unlike previous reviewers who talk about the physical appearance I have more imagination than they do than to dismiss this wonderful project of Penguin's on such odiously superficial grounds. I also purchased a gorgeous Penguin tote that I will use to carry my books piecemeal as I make my way through this wonderful collection.

I am dismayed by the low rating of this box set due to reviews focused almost entirely on the construction of the packaging rather than the content of its books. This is a wonderful box set! It offers an opportunity to sample a fairly wide range of writers and time periods. I think it's a fantastic idea, and I'm looking forward to reading all 80 volumes. Little Black Classics Box Set (Penguin Little Black Classics)

Don't worry about the box - it's fine quality. The content of books is a treat for the bargain price! Lovely -something for the serious reader.

First time I received the books, the box was slightly damaged! I know it wasn't too bad, but the shrink wrap was opening up and in a part of a collection like this the box is important. It's supposed to be visually stunning. immediately sent me another copy. Sent it packaged nicely this time. Love these little books. I love being able to read one in about an hour or so. Some of them aren't really my type of literature, but I love being exposed to all these different little books. Penguin does it once again! I'm going to buy the next 30 or so books now that they released after this set. So cute!

This was a quick-gift for my bibliophile girlfriend and she absolutely loves it. The books are short enough for her to read one in a single sitting and they represent a wide breadth of authors, time periods, genres, and styles. What caught her eye above anything else was how obscure some of the titles were. It can be hard to find every unique work from every famous author, so this provides a rare insight into lesser-known works that still hold massive artistic merit. The quality of the box was completely acceptable and arrived in perfect condition. It is true that the numbering on the spines is slightly offset so that the books do not line up perfectly, but that seems impossible due to the length of the various book titles.

This boxed collection of books is delightful! It is full collection is full of selections I wished I had read, or I feel like I should have read (which is why I bought it in the first place), and many from authors I'm familiar with--just not this particular one. Each book slips easily into a purse or backpack. You can read them in order--no particular reason to do so unless you are super-organized, or pluck one from the shelf as the mood strikes you. It's a great start if you took way too many STEM classes in college and not enough humanities or literature. Enjoy!!

Although I don't have the heart to read through some of the poetry (yes there is poetry in this classic box) I found the other stories to be really refreshing. I love love love how absolutely diverse it was. It not only includes European authors but Asian as well. Haven't finished the whole box set but the experience is very rewarding so far. I love the philosophy books the most.
