Customer Reviews

I really enjoy the story. Both the development of the main character,s and the others those they encounter within the story are well done.

While its not a continuation of the story from the olast book the side stories are still fun excerpts of Lawrence and Holo's travels.

My favorite part of this book is the novella at the end featuring the humble and stoic shepherdess, Nora Arendt, written from the perspective of her faithful sheepdog, Enek. Makes for a refreshing change from the sharp and shrewd Holo; more stories featuring these two would be nice.

Everything about this purchase was absolutely perfect. Just as I'd come to expect.

As always, the Spice and Wolf franchise continues with another fantastic read.

Another great piece to add to my/your Spice and Wolf collection.
