Customer Reviews

Mary Anne chooses Edgar Allen Poe as an author for an English class assignment. The BSC receives a call from the owner of Poe & Co. to get a sitter for his kids. Mary Anne goes, and meets all of these mysterious people when mysterious things start happening. Read the book, you won't regret it.

Mary Anne got a new job in the bookstore. But this bookstore is not ordinary. Things started popping out. There are black cats, black crows. Mary Anne have another mystery on her hands.

I thought this book is great because it is breath taking. This book is about Mary Anne she got a new job at a book store that sells only mystery books. But then after awhile things start happening. For example, things keep popping up. Things like black cats, black crows, and people and she tries to tell the owner and he doesn't believe her. Marry Anne doesn't really get scared at first because she likes spooky books so all of these things keep appearing and she just keeps telling the owner but she says to herself don't get scared. After a long time books start falling on the floor and people start talking to her which I think it is very spooky and all so they say things that she can't really understand this was spooky to me because sometimes that happens to me. This book tells you things that might make you never want to read another book against especially scary books like this one. This story mostly takes place in the book store and my favorite character of course is Marry Anne because she is very brave. I would recommend this book to people that are from 10-15 mostly to girls because I think that this book is mostly for girls who like mystery books.

This book was so scary! Since I read it at night it seems extra freaky! I really recommend this book to people who really like scary stories!
