Customer Reviews

SAM is The Man... I cannot wait until his full story is released. This back story did us a little justice as we all knew Ms. Blue would do, but man I know his full story will blow me out of the water. I was feeling the the sexual chemistry between he and Ellen but nothing like I felt when Tasha, aka Monique was introduced. Their chemistry sexual and otherwise literally JUMPED off the page. I would really like to know if there is a "back story" between these two. Only time will tell.

I'm not feeling Sam and Ellen too much, but I was feeling that club scene with the chocolaty temptress Tasha. I felt more chemistry with them than Sam with Ellen. She just was not a strong character to me. The other brothers had exciting chases and stories with some comic relief. Ellen just gave in to her feelings. She was not interesting to me.

Sam is.....SAM!!! I was gifted this book, and I'm so truly grateful. I'm glad to know Sam's story, so when we get to LBV, I know it will be off the hook. Sam is sexy, dangerous, and total definition of a bad a**. Ellen didn't stand a chance with Sam, especially when he said "give me 4 days and 4 nights." He was very confident in his self and getting his way. The twist came in the form of Monique/Tasha. Sam & Tasha forgot everything and everybody on that dance floor. That Kiss was... PICCANTE!! (Italian for Hot) Even though it's just a backstory, he told so much and only makes you wonder and ponder what will happen next. Blue Saffire, even though it was short, sweet, & sexy, this book was on point.

Damn good book. This is my second review for this book. I LOVED THIS BOOK. I was always curious about Sam, so it was great to get some info about him. I'm impatiently waiting to see what happens with Tasha. There is no way she can have that type of impact and not get a book. I'm also waiting for Olivia to get her own book. She deserves HEA, especially after the way she helped Jason and Rie. Again, impatiently waiting. Love this series and the spinoffs.

Since I truly need more information on the brother called Sam in order to place him as a active member of the family this short story is appreciated. I respect who he his and why, also the nice peek into the life of the woman he married answered many questions about who she is. This novella is great and Sam is every bit of a sexy, strong dangerous man. Great book,nice addtion to the Legally Bound series.

This was a tease and not sure what the next installment will be about other than filling in the major gaps regarding Sam's life. Given the fact there are already three kids and one just given birth to, and the fact Bobby has yet to marry Paige, there should be a whole lot of story telling in the next book - at least I hope so.

The turn off for me in this book was the total disrespect Sam showed his future wife in the club..... I won't be a spoiler ,but that kind of disrespect could only be so easily forgiven by a weak/or stupid woman. Especially with someone you just met. Very disappointing.

What can I say once again Blue Saffire has done her thing. This book is amazing I am in awe every time I read one of her books. Bobby is my favorite character in the Legally Bound series but Sam is easing him out to #2. I can't wait to see Sam & Monique(Tasha) story unfold.
