Customer Reviews

I initially read this on AO3 and was hooked. The extra details added to this book make it better reading since there's something new for me to enjoy but honestly, this just makes you yearn to have book 2 available as soon as you finish this. A selfish part of me wanted it all to be part of one long book instead so I could read it all in one go. Looking forward to the next part of this story!

This has been my favorite story so far. I love the raw emotional confusion expressed by both characters. I also enjoy the light versus dark thread that runs throughout. I am a romantic at heart and always want goodness, light and love to win over darkness, cruelty and indifference. Of course some BDSM and lots of smut thrown in does not hurt either. Another fantastic story by Amelita with well rounded characters, a detailed story line and the elephant in the room...CLIFFHANGER!!! I want more, more, more and hope these two heroes find the love and light they seek. I also suspect an interesting twist to pop up in part two....stay tuned...

Usually bdsm is not for everyone but here it is written in a way that just makes a reader more curious. Though I'm sure that it is enough to satisfy an appetite if one is really into it as well. Lol.This was a long story but darn it, I wish it were even longer. Nice work with the names!There is just something so intense between them. Chiyaki might be madonna-ized a bit far but that just adds to the setting. He is a true star :)

Gorgeous piece of work and one of my favorite pieces from this author. It's a story that touches your heart and really makes you feel for the character. You can't help but get attached to the poor little uke, and only want the best for him. It's also a story about humanity, and how sometimes it's another person that makes life worth living. I can't begin to describe how complex and satisfying it is to read just the beginning part and I'm definitely looking forward to part 2.

This is part one of a two-part-story and I'm really glad, that this is a little bit longer than the version I was able to read before...the cliffhanger this time isn't so cruel, than the other one.It's an amazing story of a young man, who get caught by a human traficker. What at first sound quite cruel will be explained in a way, that one can understand certain decisions and behaviours. One more time Amelita is able to write characters not only in black-white-schemes, but in very different shades of grey (no, I don't read these ones yet), so you can't say, that one is just evil or not.The relationship between seme and uke is buildt very slow and it makes a lot of fun to read and to observe the changings of both of them are experiencing. The uke learns, that other people knows more of his desires than himself, and the coldhearted bastard of a crime lord has to learn, that he is not so cruel, as he thought.I'm looking forward to the second book and hope, that it doesn't take to long until it will be available

Love this! I love the way Chiaki's emotions are expressed, you really feel what he is going through. Each emotion is just so present. I also love the snippets into Rokuda's confusion and frustration with himself as well, just makes him seem all the more real and human. Eagerly awaiting the second installment!

Great story. I liked Chiaki's confusion at his reactions to the seme, and the seme trying to discount that he is feeling something for the uke. Just a side note for new readers, contains some graphic violence

Ow my dear author/ "teaser" I just finished reading this masterpiece and I can't wait to indulge in the second part. BDSM is not an easy subject to write about, but the way you portrait the act it is indeed an art. Like always an exquisite masterpiece that I recommend with open heart to be follow.
