The Playgirls: On Top And The Brat

Synopsis

On Top: Alice is tired of being Ms. Boring; the stigma is affecting her personal life as well as her career, so she takes the proverbial bull by the horns and asks Colt Colburn to help her get through her audacious bucket list. Colt isn't the playboy everyone assumes him to be; actually, he'd love a relationship if and when he finds a woman who can accept his hectic schedule. He has every intention of asking Alice for a date as soon as business needs permit, of course. She isn't a good option; as a friend of the family, she shouldn't even be on his radar, however he's prepared to give it a try. | The Brat: Shane has a plan in mind, revolving around the welfare of his business, and Brooke isn't part of it. Three years ago, he learnt everything he ever wished to know about women, now he has one use for them; but then, Brooke comes back to town. Ten years ago, Brooke's reason to breathe used to be annoying the hell out of her brother and his best friend, Shane Vaughan. Needless to say, that had nothing to do with her humongous crush on him. She's back in town and while college has made her a teeny, tiny bit more mature, she just can't resist raising their blood pressure. Shane has never been as pissed off as the day when he hears that she's considering hiring a professional to "take care" of her V-Card before her next birthday. What is he gonna do about it? --On top: full length novel | The brat: complete novella | Note that both are explicit adult romance stories.

Customer Reviews

I love May Sage's writing style. She writes about strong, funny, and independent women who don't forget kindness and loyalty in awesome looking men.
