The Earl's Christmas Colt

Synopsis

The Earl's Christmas Colt by Rebecca Thomas Lady Arabella Sutton is stunned to learn her brother has betrothed her to a stranger despite his promises for a season in London. Although she is the first to admit no man would suit, since she's more interested in horses than marriage, the last thing she wants is to become a brood mare to a stuffy old earl. Facing a future she cannot abide, she takes an impetuous ride to clear her head and ends up tending her injured mare instead. Oliver Westwyck, the Earl of Marsdale, can't believe his luck when he stops at an inn the night before he's to meet his fiancée. In the stable, while tending the colt he intends to give to his future wife, he happens upon her—rain-drenched but beautiful. She assumes he's a stable hand, a fine joke he means to end...until Lady Arabella declares all noblemen are egotistical, conceited, and arrogant. How can he reveal his true identity before he's managed to change her mind and win her heart?

Customer Reviews

When Lady Arabella Sutton learns that her brother has betrothed her to a complete stranger, behind her back no less - she is furious! Yes, she had her season, and granted no one caught her interest but she could try again couldn't she? Why did he go ahead and do this without consulting her, and of all things her betrothed was heir to a duke! Unthinkable! Racing out of the house Arabella hopped on her mare and rode away not thinking of how far or where she was going. Racing along she felt it when her mare Andromeda seemed to give way and she immediately pulled up and investigated her hooves. Knowing a storm was on its way and she wouldn't be able to return home before it hit Arabella headed for the local inn. Any horse lover like myself is simply going to love this very cute and very sweet novella! Not only are you going to get a very sweet and pretty much predictable romance, but you will simply fall in love with these two perfectly matched protagonists. Lady Arabella was used to having her own way, not spoiled, but as a horse mad young girl who would rather ride hell bent for leather rather than sit and embroider flowers or paint silly pictures as most girls of her age and era would. Not only that but Arabella was down to earth and had no use for the nobility of the time especially pompous dukes and earls who were so egotistical and full of themselves. The thought of being married to an old fuddy-duddy duke or heir to one was not her dream, unlike most girls who would be thrilled to know they would be a duchess one day.
