Divine Intervention, The Complete Series: Fictional Christian Short Stories

Synopsis

Miracles, coincidences, or interventions from a higher power? How can you believe in a God you have never seen? A young prostitute, hurt and starving, steps inside a church for the first time in her life. There, she finds her true calling: ending human trafficking. A Navy captain readies himself to carry out a secret mission but is unsure of how to make the announcement to his crew. A mysterious stranger is rescued and taken aboard his ship, who helps him find the inspiration he needs. A priest sits next to a soldier on a plane. The priest shares a story about a miracle, love, and faith, and the soldier, in turn, shares a story about her struggles and weaknesses. He helps her to find the valor within herself. A pastor, lost on a deserted highway, is stopped by a police officer who proclaims herself an atheist. The pastor reminds her of her past and the miracles she has seen, and she finds herself taking the first step toward God. An abused young woman takes a leap of faith when she meets a pastor's wife. She finds courage she never knew she had, inspiring her to move on. Kathryn, a trained fighter pilot in the United States Navy, is set to test her skills on a commercial airliner, when something goes wrong. Does she have the courage to save the lives of her 103 passengers? A runaway slave with nothing to lose stumbles upon a group of unconventional women. They help him find his faith in God, ultimately giving his life to Christ and saving others from tyranny. These tales make up a complete collection of fictional short stories that explore the spirit of the human mind, the will of God, and the mysteries that surround us.
